Ray McGovern

27-yr CIA Analyst

Speaking on: The Iraq War;

Why Are We In - When to Get Out?

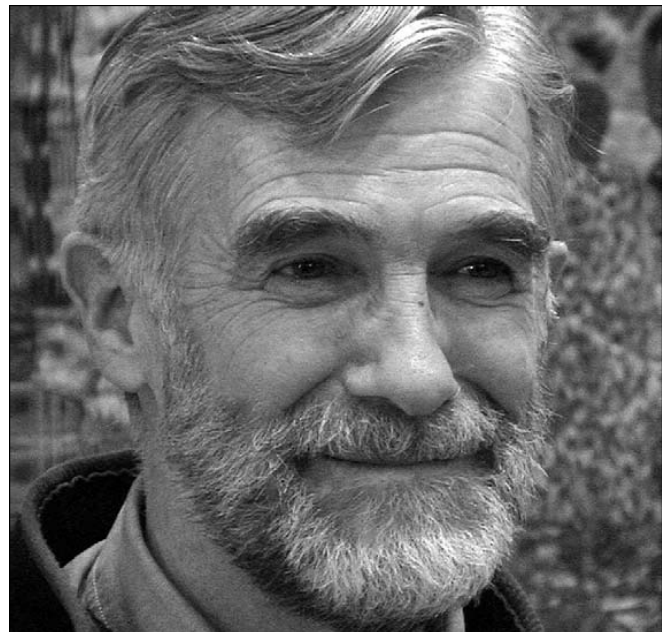

Introduction by: Mayor Scott Slifka

Ray McGovern, CIA analyst for 27 years and through 7 presidents, has been speaking out about the foreign policy issues that are facing this country. "There's an inscription at the entrance to the CIA, chiseled into the marble there, which reads, You Shall Know The Truth, And The Truth Shall Set You Free. When you come out of that ethic, you ask yourself, 'Do I not have some kind of duty, by virtue of my experience and my knowledge of these things, do I not have some kind of duty to speak out here and tell the rest of the American people what's going on?'"

SPECIAL GUESTS:

Dave MacMichael: former U.S. Marine, Department of Defense consultant, CIA analyst, and founder of the Association of National Security Alumni.

Nadia McCaffrey - Mother of Sgt. Patrick McCaffrey, killed in Iraq on June 22, 2004; member of Gold Star Families for Peace and Military Families Speak Out.
